MORE CLASSES for STUDENTS and ADULTS

Playing Shakespeare/STEVE URKOWITZ & friends

June 22, 24, 25, 29, July 1, 2 6:00 -8:30 $50

Join actress and director Laura Graham and Professor Steve Urkowitz as they assist students in the reading, interpretation and performance of the Bard's great monologues and scenes. More classes this year and more time with the words.

Imagination in Motion/KAREN MONTANARO June 29, 30, July 1, 2 6:00 - 8:00 $50

Only a willingness to explore movement is required as students work with Karen to blend the art forms of mime and dance to create theater with rare physical and emotional power. She is a solo performer, an award-winning choreographer, and the innovator of "mimedance" (the fusion of two classical art forms). Karen studied at the Cantarella School of Dance, Ram Island Dance Center and with the Joffrey Ballet School. After dancing professionally with the Ohio Ballet and the Darmstadt Opera Ballet in Germany, she toured and taught internationally with mime master, Tony Montanaro.

Stage Combat/ MARK BEDELL June 22, 23, 24, 25, 26 6:00 -8:00 $50

"Ride hard, fall soft and fight safe" with fight director and stuntman Mark Bedell. A graduate of the school of hard knocks and lots of Hollywood movies, students of all ages will learn the basics of falls, fights and sword play on stage. An absolute favorite of last summer's intensive Classes, Mark's high energy and humor gives new meaning to the phrase punch line!

Theater, Magic, Shadow/LELAND FAULKNER July 6, 7, 8, 9 6:00 -8:00 $50

A director, film maker, shadow artist and performer, Faulkner will work with performers to demonstrate and encourage the artistic journey. Employing a wide variety of approaches, Faulkner brings focus to the act of creation.
